

PARTNERS

The Community Court represents the combined efforts of the criminal justice system, local governments, non-profit agencies, and the private sector. Although the Atlanta Municipal Court and presiding Judge Clinton Deveau provide leadership, it is the dedication of other city departments, agencies and service providers that make ACC work. The Community Court greatly values the vital partnerships that have developed with county and state agencies, especially the Metro Regional Board, which provides Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities and Addictive Diseases MH/DD/AD funding and consultation to the ACC's mental health and addictive disease initiatives. Additionally, the ACC maintains valued partnerships with over fifty private and non-profit agencies, many of them Regional Board and United Way affiliates, which provide treatment services to the Courts' defendants.
